

Order the illustrations in the order you think they appear in the book from 1 to 4. Use the images to infer and predict what you think the story is about, before writing a short paragraph explaining what you can see in the illustrations and what this makes you think happens in the story.

[illegible]